What is this type of insurance?

Sports Cover is a fixed-term insurance for competitive sports. OP Insurance has agreed on the insurance details with each sports federation that offer Sports Cover together with a competition licence, meaning that the policies may differ in some details, depending on the level of risk of each sport. Sports Cover compensates if the insured person becomes injured or disabled or dies as a result of a sudden event.

What is insured?

✓ Medical expenses indemnity – We compensate expenses resulting from a bodily injury caused by a sudden event when engaged in the insured sport. Coverage is provided for

- fees for examinations and treatment carried out by physicians or healthcare professionals
- costs for medicinal products and wound dressings sold in pharmacies
- daily hospital charges
- costs of dental injury examinations and treatments
- costs for orthopaedic braces or bandages for the treatment of a coverable injury
- costs for physiotherapy required to recover from a fracture or a surgical procedure following an injury. However, physiotherapy is only covered for up to 10 sessions per sudden event.
- rental costs of crutches
- reasonable travel expenses to the nearest treatment location.

The maximum compensation is the highest amount of compensation for each loss, and this depends on your sports federation.

✓ Handicap benefit – We compensate sudden events to the insured person on the basis of handicap classification referred to in the Occupational Accidents, Injuries and Diseases Act when the permanent handicap has continued for at least three months. Any handicap must nevertheless be determined no later than three years after the sudden event. The assessment only takes into account the medical nature of the handicap, not the person's profession or hobbies, for example. The maximum compensation is EUR 30,000.

✓ Death benefit – The beneficiary is entitled to a death benefit of EUR 8,500 if the insured person dies within three years as a result of a bodily injury caused by a sudden event.
